CONVENTION RULES

General Rules

For your safety and the safety of your fellow attendees please follow all event rules, signs and instructions to ensure a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable experience.

Keep your behavior family-friendly.

We encourage everyone to cosplay, but please make sure your cosplay complies with local laws and convention rules.

Selfie Sticks are not allowed at Anime Central unless in photoshoot areas.

Please follow all rules of the venue you are in.

Play-fighting and/or rough-housing is not allowed. Still poses for photographs are allowed.

Firearms and realistic firearm props are not permitted.

Do not do anything that risks or threatens the safety or well-being of anyone at the convention.

Anything that is illegal outside the convention is illegal inside the convention

Don't make us make a rule about you.

Additional details and a complete listing of rules are available online at <http://www.acen.org/convention-policies/>

Anime Central does not condone illegal activities, including underage drinking and smoking, or the use of illegal substances. Attendees found breaking the law will be turned over to the local authorities and may have membership privileges revoked.

Staff may, at any time:

Inspect your badge.

Ask for valid government-issued identification.

Ask to inspect the contents of bags, backpacks, purses, etc.

Deny entrance to an event for safety reasons.

If a staff member, venue employee, or Rosemont police officer asks you to do something, please follow their requests.

Age Policy

Anime Central strive to provide a fun, safe, and friendly environment for all ages. That being said, we have a few rules regarding our younger fans.

Children should have either a parental escort or a means of communicating with their parent (such as a cell phone) at all times.

Anime Central is family-friendly, but we are not a child care service. Your kids are your responsibility.

Children under 13 must have a parent or guardian with them at all times.

In accordance with curfew laws, attendees who are 17 or under must be off hotel grounds by midnight, unless they are registered guests of the hotel or accompanied by a legal guardian.

Parents/Guardians will be held responsible for the cost of any damage their children may cause.

Anti-Harassment Policy

If you are made to feel unwelcome, unsafe, or uncomfortable by someone's behavior, that is harassment. Anime Central does not allow harassment of any kind, including but not limited to behaviors such as: stalking, offensive comments, hate speech, inappropriate or unwelcome physical contact, recording or taking pictures without permission, and repeatedly disrupting conversations you have been asked to leave. The aforementioned comments or hate speech could be in relation to (but not limited to): age, race or ethnicity, color, citizenship, relationship status, sexual orientation, gender identity or presentation, appearance or body size, pregnancy, disability, or religion.

Keep your hands to yourself. Respect your fellow attendees.

Keep an eye on what you say to people and how you act around them. Be cautious: ask first and respect a person's right to say no. Remember, cosplay is not consent.

If you feel harassed or see someone else being harassed, notify a staff member immediately. Anime Central will take any action necessary to stop the behavior, up to and including badge revocation and expulsion from convention premises. We will also take steps to help you feel safe again, such as helping you contact Rosemont police, escorting you to a safe location, or contacting your friends or family for you. This policy applies to everyone at the convention, including attendees, panelists, vendors, guests, and staff.

Costume and Prop Policies

These rules are for costumes and props throughout the convention. If you are not sure whether your costume or prop is acceptable, just ask any staff member!

All props and cosplays must comply with local laws. Cosplays cannot leave your feet bare. Sandals are acceptable, being barefoot or using footpads is not acceptable.

Body paint must be sealed, dry, and non-transferable. If you sit on any venue furniture and ruin it with body paint you will be responsible for all damage expenses.

No roller-wear is allowed in convention areas including but not limited to heelys, hoverboards, and skateboards.

Costumes or clothing that contain vulgar remarks, illustrations or hate speech in any language are not acceptable.

For your safety, your costumes safety, and the safety of others please be conscious of your surroundings while in cosplay. If you are wearing an oversized costume or carrying a larger than you prop please be conscious of narrow hallways, doorways, and ceilings. If you break or damage venue grounds you will be responsible for the charges. Cosplay that has dangerous protrusions such as spikes or sharp edges is not allowed.

If your costume has any visual impairments, you are required to have a handler. If you do not have a handler, you will be asked to remove your costume while traveling. If your cosplay impedes the view of others during seated events, you may be relocated to the back of the event room.

Props with laser pointers or similar capabilities are not allowed.

Live Steel is not allowed within the convention.

This extends to metal props or cosplay:

that come to a point; whether sharp or blunt

that have a blade like edge; whether sharp or blunt

If a metal prop does not have points or blades it is acceptable.

Live steel purchased from vendors must stay boxed while in convention spaces.

Realistic gun props are not allowed. This is for the safety of you and fellow attendees as local law enforcement can not easily identify if these are props or live weapons.

This extends to:

Real firearms; whether disabled or not

Airsoft/Pellet guns; whether disabled or not

Anything painted to look like a realistic firearm.

Get inventive folks, but make sure your gun prop choices can't be mistaken for a real firearm.

Non realistic gun-like props are required to have an orange tip and have their firing mechanisms disabled with no ammunition loaded.

These props will need to be prop checked for acceptability.

Bows and crossbow props may not carry any arrows, bolts, or be fireable in any way.

Real firearms are not allowed on convention premises.

If you are found with an unacceptable prop or costume, you will be asked to return to your room to fix the issue.

In the event that you do not have a room, any staffer can direct you to the nearest merchandise location where you can purchase a shirt, or to the nearest item check location where you can pay to check your item.

If you are repeatedly asked to return an unacceptable prop to your room, your prop may be confiscated by the event.

Any item designed or created with the intent to cause injury or death to any person or property, as well as any item that is illegal in the state of Illinois and/or the city of Rosemont is not allowed.

The managers on duty of have the final say on the acceptability of any prop or costume.

Don't make us make a rule about you.

Gun Prop Check

A prop check station is available near the entrance to the Exhibition hall. You can also see any roaming Line and Crowd Control or Exhibit Services team member. Please understand that you may be asked several times throughout the course of the convention by staffers to check your weapon for this zip tie. We take all reasonable caution not to damage items, and hope that you understand that we need check these props for the safety of everyone.

Prop check is not required for any items besides gun like props.

Zip ties will be affixed to the prop item in question to visibly disable any firing mechanisms. You are welcome to do this yourself before the event.

Event Room Rules

Please have your badge ready and visible for the event door checker when you get to the front of the line.

Line jumping, saving spots, and saving seats are not permitted at these events.

Individuals with event accessibility badges will be allowed access to event rooms before the rest of the line is let in, please make room for them to get to the front of the line.

If you need to use the washroom or get a drink of water while in line, let the staff managing the line know before you go so that you will get your spot back when you return.

If you leave an event room after an event has started there is no guarantee you will get back in if the room you have left has filled to capacity.

If a room fills to capacity the line will be cut off. For some events the line may be capped if it gets too long.

We ask that while standing in line attendees attempt to stand single file to keep hallways open for movement.

Please leave restricted items, such as oversized bags and oversized costume props, in your car, hotel room, or at the Item Check.

No bottles with any liquids will be allowed inside the Dances, there will be water stations inside the event rooms.

Order of Entry

For large events rooms attendees with event accessibility passes will be allowed entry into the room first provided general event access loading has not already begun.

Individuals who have these passes should present themselves to the front of the line where the event team member monitoring the line is stationed up to 10 minutes before event start time. Please note early entry to any event room or event space is not guaranteed to any person, but we will do our best to allow it to individuals who qualify.

18+ event policies

All 18+ events will require attendees to have an 18+ wristband prior to entry. Attendees who do not have this wristband will be denied access to these events. ID's will not be checked at the door.* Those without wristbands will be turned away.

Wristbands can only be issued to individuals who can present a valid state or federal ID proving date of birth. Wristbands that appear to be tampered with will also not be allowed entry.

Wristbands must be affixed to a person's wrist either by an event team member or right in front of them.

No wristbands will be permitted to leave a distribution station in an unfixed state.

Wristband will not be permitted to be looped through badges.

All wristbands are waterproof, and you are welcome to get a new one if you damage your original one.

CONVENTION RULES

To receive an 18+ wristband attendees can visit customer service booths.

*Attendees with a valid event accessibility pass can have their ID's checked at the door if they cannot wear a wristband, this is the only exception, and it does not apply to the people they have accompanying them.

Photography and Video Recording

Photos and videos must be for personal use only.

The only exception to this rule is Anime Central Official Photographers and pre-approved Press members.

For the safety of all on stage Volunteers, Guests and Performers flash photography is not permitted.

photography without flash is allowed provided the specific event you are attending allows photography
Selfie sticks are not allowed.

You may not charge a fee to others to view your photos and videos from the event.

Photography, audio recording, and video recording are not permitted during concerts unless specifically stated. This may also apply to specific Guest of Honor events.

Photographers are not permitted to set up photo booths without having a photographer license from our exhibition hall.

Bags

Bags will not be permitted into certain areas of the event.

During the large dances and concerts in main events, bags may not be allowed at all. This is for the safety of everyone. The only exceptions to this will be a clutch/wristlet, with or without a handle or strap, that do not exceed 4.5" x 6.5" (approximately the size of a hand). Or for those individual with a special needs access bag pass for medication. For events that may allow you to bring bags with you, please note that they may be subject to searching.

Smoking

No smoking is allowed inside any building the convention resides in, this includes vaping. No smoking while in lines for ACen events. Smokers need to stand at least 15 ft from the line and/or doors if they need to smoke. The Hyatt sets up special smoking areas, please be advised that smokers will be asked to move into these.

Elevators

During peak hours, ACen team members will direct the use of the elevators in the Hyatt to ensure that the flow of traffic is as smooth as possible and to minimize any delays while waiting for elevators. When using elevators:

Plan to get off on the Lobby Level, unless your mobility is impaired and you need to get off on the ground floor.

The elevator is not board-able from the ground level unless you have an event accessibility pass, everyone else can navigate to the Lobby Level queue.

Please press the elevator call button only once.

Please hold the doors open using the Open Door button inside the elevator, rather than by holding the elevators open with your hands.

Please keep all bags and arms inside the elevator and to yourself at all times and enjoy your ride.

As a thank you to our service members (veteran and currently serving military, police, fire, EMT, etc), we offer a full weekend membership for a discounted rate of $40. This discount only applies to the serving member, and not to any other memberships or passes being purchased. This discount is also only valid for full weekend memberships purchased at the convention and cannot be applied to single day passes. The attendee must present an ID showing that they are or were a member of the various services to receive this discount.

Regarding Membership Policy at the Convention, Anime Central Membership Badges...
Anime Central reserves the right to edit any profane and/or offensive nicknames in any language and holds no responsibility for any membership misspellings and/or typographical errors.

MAPS memberships and passes, as well as additional membership options, are non-transferable and non-refundable; use of a MAPS membership badge or pass by any person other than the original holder is not allowed and will result in membership badge or pass confiscation. Membership badges and passes may not be duplicated in any fashion. The holder of a membership badge or pass shall agree to surrender the badge to any MAPS officer or representative on request. When you purchase a badge or pass for ACen, you purchase a membership for MAPS for the current convention year.

There will be no recompense if you are found with a counterfeit badge. If you purchase a badge from someone other than Anime Central, you will not have a valid membership to our event. Scalping badges only hurts our event. If you find people scalping badges, please report them to immediately at registration@ACen.org.

Lost Membership

Replacing a membership incurs a $30.00 fee for a one-time-only replacement membership. Any additional replacements come at the full at-convention price.

Event Accessibility

Anime Central strives to provide a quality convention experience for every attendee. For any of our members with accessibility concerns, medical conditions, or any other circumstance that prevents their participation and enjoyment of convention activities, we provide certain accommodations and services. Come to any Customer Service Desk in the Registration Hall or in the Hyatt Regency O'Hare for help with any needs, or concerns.

Visit Customer Service and ask about accommodations if you

- Cannot stay in line for extended periods.
- Need a sign language interpreter.
- Need assistance in getting to a certain area of the convention.
- Need to nurse a child.
- Have a service animal and are registering them for their own convention badge.
- Need priority seating due to a disability

All Hell Breaks Loops

All Hell Breaks Loops is a multiclass mixed Japanese DJ/VJ from Los Angeles, California. A digital staple of the southern California club and rave scene, AHBL has the rare distinction of transforming his talents at all major American anime conventions from coast to coast. Proving that being terminally online can still have a pulse, his open format media style draws from the pastiche of pop and traditional culture, Japanese doujin fan creations, 3D renders on par with AAA game titles, social media filters, and an underlying discourse worthy of video essay analysis.

GUESTS AND PERFORMERS

Moe Shop

Tokyo-based electronic artist Moe Shop connects the floor-filling sounds of French House music with Japan's neon-bright club music community, creating songs offering an original take on two countries' dance styles.

Throughout 2021 to 2022 Moe Shop's original releases "Love Taste" and "Notice" spent several weeks enjoying virality via SNS services such as Tik Tok and YouTube, netting 54.7 million and 34 million streams respectively on Spotify alone, combined with an additional 23 million and 14 million on Moe Shop's official YouTube channel. To date, Moe Shop has also seen over 10 originals reach over 10 million plays on individual streaming services.

This level of organic virality has seen them land major offers from companies such as Netflix, Sunrise, and Bandai Namco, as well landing them work for numerous major artists signed to mainstay labels such as Sony Music Japan, Warner Music Japan, and Universal Music.

Originally catching global attention from their bedroom studio in France, a then-17 -year-old Moe Shop exploded onto the scene with the release of their "Pure Pure" EP; a release which, to date, is lauded as one of the crowning achievements of the 'Future Funk' genre, and would thus launch the global career of Moe Shop as they worked towards an all-new sound found in their most recent releases.

ANDROID52

Starting out with video game and anime music remixes, Germany-based ANDROID52 has since then focused on original production work with his fifth studio album "NONPLUSULTRA" expected to release this summer. ANDROID52's funk-driven electro house sounds have found new audiences following shows across Japan, Europe & the US and production work done for KONAMI's BEMANI rhythm games, SONY Group and others.

GUESTS AND PERFORMERS

kotu is a Chicago born, Mexican producer whose musical career began in Tokyo. Releasing their first official track in 2018, kotu kickstarted their career with international live shows across Tokyo, which then led to plenty of DJ appearances across the U.S. The transition from sample based Future Funk has now evolved to a fresh blend of kotu's musical history- including dance, hip hop, and reggaeton. The trifecta of dance genres is sure to continue making waves across the globe.

Voia

Voia is a virtual streamer and music producer whose music is heavily influenced by video games and Japanese animated movies. He's written music for games including OMORI and Groove Coaster in the past, as well as produced songs for J-Pop artists such as Koda Kumi, YANAKIKU, and Namakopuri. He most recently collaborated with Ryuno and Ruely for the song "MAGIC" that's now playable in the game MUSIC DIVER.

TANUKI

TANUKI is a multi-genre music producer and DJ based in Scotland. He first became active in the Japanese dance music scene shortly after starting to make music, with his main inspiration being J-Core. GUESTS AND PERFORMERS

Helen McCarthy

Helen McCarthy was first introduced to anime and manga in 1981. With no reference books in the English language on Japanese animation, she started to research an introductory guide using French, Italian, Spanish and Asian sources. Since there was no awareness of Japanese pop culture in Britain, it took her over a decade to find a publisher for Anime! A Beginners Guide To Japanese Animation.

In 1991, still seeking a publisher, Helen co-founded the UK's first professional anime magazine, Anime UK. The magazine won an international reputation – it was even on sale in Japan – and helped to create the market for her first book. She later edited Manga Mania magazine, and has written over 100 articles for European, American, Japanese and online publications, from Super Play magazine and Kyoto Journal to the Daily Telegraph Online. She's delighted that other writers, designers and artists started their professional careers on her magazines.

Since then, Helen has written a dozen more books, including works on anime and manga superstars Hayao Miyazaki, Osamu Tezuka and Leiji Matsumoto. She is co-author of The Anime Encyclopedia, considered the pre-eminent research guide to the medium. She has also contributed to numerous academic works, and written more playful material – a manga cross-stitch guide, two how-to books on drawing and the shortest, most picture-packed and most colourful history of manga on the market. Her work has been published in eight languages including Japanese, Chinese and Korean, and has won several international awards.

After more than a decade researching the history of cosplay from its earliest times to its explosion as a Japanese-inspired global contemporary art, Helen's newest research interest is the history of British anime and manga fanzines. She loves their punk energy and diversity. She's also working on a new book project which may just be the most challenging, and most disaster-prone, thing she's ever done. Come to one of her presentations to hear about it.

Before the pandemic, Helen curated and presented a number of film seasons, and spoke at venues all over the world, ranging from public libraries and universities to exhibitions including the British Museum's 2009/10 and 2015 manga exhibits and their 2019 blockbuster exhibition Manga! She loves introducing anime and manga to audiences of all ages, and during the pandemic she presented to audiences online. She intends to continue working virtually but is delighted to return to present in person.

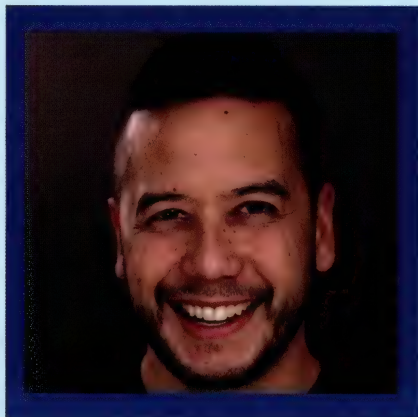

GUESTS AND PERFORMERS

Eric Maruscak

Eric Maruscak has been appearing at conventions across the United States, making giant chalk murals as performance art since 2006, focusing on Anime/Comic Book Imagery and Pop Culture themes. This will be Eric's 9th appearance at Anime Central, following up after last year's "Bleach: Thousand-Year Blood War" mural for Viz Media.

Eric has also appeared at the San Diego Comic Con, the New York Comic Con, the New York Anime Festival, Anime NYC, Anime Frontier in Texas, Anime Expo in Los Angeles, CrunchyRoll Expo, the Baltimore Otakon, the Penny Arcade Expo, Star Wars Celebration, and a number of Wizard World Shows across the United States, just to name a few.

Recently, Eric completed a Genshin Impact mural artwork for Hoyoverse. Other clients have included creating promo art for 2 seasons of "Star Wars: The Clone Wars" for Lucasfilm, creating artwork for the Legend of Zelda at the San Diego Comic Con, and Eric has also created chalk murals for companies such as Crayola, Nintendo, 2K Games, anime companies such as FUNimation, Aniplex, CrunchyRoll, and many more including Virgin Atlantic, ESPN, Warner Brothers, Nickelodeon, Marvel and DC Comics, and more!

Some of Eric's murals take over 30 hours to complete during the course of an appearance, so he records time lapse videos of the entire process which are posted online not long after the show.

Samurai Dan and Jillian

He's the merc with the mouth and his swordplay always comes with maximum effort...wait; it's not who you think it is! However, there ARE similarities: both fight with swords for pay, both run their mouths, both have beautiful love-of-their-lives, and sadly, both look the same beneath their masks/headwraps! Samurai Dan and his lovely lady Jillian teach sword and self defense classes, give informational panels, perform stage shows, and do almost anything else to ensure that congoers enjoy themselves. Japanese Culture Center

The Japanese Culture Center was established in 1977 in Chicago by Aikido Shihan (Teacher of Teachers) and Zen Master Fumio Toyoda to make some of the martial arts, crafts, and philosophical riches of Japan available to the public.

Today the JCC continues this tradition, offering classes in over a dozen martial and cultural arts. The Center is not a museum where lifeless objects are displayed; it is a school where living skills are passed on person to person from generation to generation. You become an active participant in arts that have been around for hundreds, if not thousands of years.

CELEBRITY SIDE QUEST GUESTS

The Gaming and Manufacturing Association (GAMA) is working with Six Sides of Gaming in partnership with Anime Central (ACen), bringing you a unique experience that promises to level up your entertainment.

She has also written for various RPGs including Dungeons & Dragons, the G.I. JOE, Transformers, Power Rangers, and My Little Pony Roleplaying Games, Wardlings, Kids on Bikes, and many more, as well as developed, edited, and produced RPG books for the fifth edition Vampire: the Masquerade and Hunter: the Reckoning lines. Known for social intrigue, deep mystery plots, and puzzles in her RPG writing, she wrote the chapter on how to use puzzles in your game for D&D's Tasha's Cauldron of Everything, wrote an exclusive adventure featured in Beadle & Grimm's Fizban's

Treasury of Dragons Silver Edition, and has designed puzzle events and ARGs for some of the largest companies, theme parks, and events in the world.

A past Guest of Honor at conventions all over the world, including Gen Con, Gary Con, Origins Game Fair, Gamehole Con, and more, she has spoken on panels teaching the how-tos of success in the tabletop game industry. She is a featured Dungeon Master at D&D in a Castle, and she is a cast member of Six Sides of Gaming's D&D Actual Play show, "Destiny of Mana" as well as many one-shot Actual Plays for charity every year.

Vince Caso

Vince Caso is an actor, writer, and tabletop role player based in Los Angeles, where he was educated in a school for the arts, training in improv, acting, music, and Shakespeare from an early age. His experience in on-screen performance began in the Slamdance darling "Humble Pie", after which he played Blazze on Felicia Day's multi-award winning "The Guild", which spawned a legion of successive media including comic books, music videos, and an exhibit in the Smithsonian.

Vince began voice acting at this time as well, landing roles in Guys From Andromeda's "Space Venture", the animated show "Lost Hope", and the audio drama "Veronica". Simultaneous to this, Vince was building a repertoire of vocal performances in the form of over 50 live action radio plays, in which he would play up to 9 different characters per show, and swiftly became known for his broad vocal dexterity.

His experience, further, extends to theater, having performed renditions of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" and "The Tempest", as well as Sondheim's "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and a highly lauded performance in a stage production of "12 Angry Men".

Vince's latest foray is into the world of TTRPGs, where he began DM'ing professionally on the actualplay series' "Failed Save" and "Banesbreak", but has further appeared as a performer on Paradox Interactive's "Vampire the Masquerade: LA By Night", Legendary Digital Networks' "We're Alive: Frontier", and a variety of other shows. Aside from his performances, Vince is also busy at work as a writer, having penned a slew of TV pilots, short stories, and D&D one-shot adventures, and is currently working on a slate of short film projects to shoot in 2023 and 2024. He loves to cook, read, and game, and is a proud cat-dad to two fuzzy hellions.

CELEBRITY SIDE QUEST GUESTS

Surena Marie

Surena is a multi-passionate actor, writer, and TTRPG industry professional. Previously she served as the Product Marketing Manager at Critical Role before becoming the Head of Marketing & Communication for Quest Portal, a virtual tabletop based in Iceland. When she's not working 9-5, she performs with her friends at Dropout (Dimension 20's Court of Fey and Flowers, Um Actually, Dirty Laundry), The Dungeon Run, and Pixel Circus. She also voiced a very stressed ship ai named Doty in Jackbox Party Pack 5. In addition, Surena also crafted the cover adventure for the Nebula Award Nominated Journeys through the Radiant Citadel from the Wizards of the Coast. Ask her about Disney Dreamlight Valley or Sailor Moon to receive an unreasonable amount of information. However, if that sounds like your vibe, follow her on Twitter and IG at @surenaxmarie!

AUTOGRAPHS

Autographs are being handled differently for ACen 2023. Some guests will have booths in the Exhibit Hall if they are comfortable with providing autographs. Autograph hours will be during Exhibit Hall hours and based on the individual guests availability.

Guests who have a scheduled session for autographs in an event room will be listed in our Guidebook. Sessions will have limited attendance and may require preregistration.

Be sure to bring an item to be signed, whether it's an ACen program book or officially licensed merchandise. All items are subject to the guest's approval. Some guests may provide an item such as a poster to be signed, but this is not guaranteed. All items must be properly licensed. If you're not sure if the item you have is OK, stop by the vendor hall first and pick something up from one of our many Industry partners!

1. Anime Central does not guarantee that you will get an autograph and/or sketch from a particular guest.
2. During autographs, items with 18+ imagery and items that suggest adult themes are not allowed unless explicitly stated by the Guest that they will allow it.
3. Guests reserve the right to decline any autograph related service, such as sketches, pictures, etc. For example, bootleg items, inappropriate pictures, body parts, etc.
4. Do not attempt to have bootlegged items autographed. Some guests may have official merchandise available for purchase.
5. Avoid lengthy conversations with guests during autograph meet and greets. Please keep the lines moving. Be considerate of other attendees and their wish to get autographs too.
6. In order to ensure the safety of you and your fellow attendees we ask that you maintain order while in line and lining up. If you are found violating this you will be removed from the autograph line and your membership will be up for review.
7. Autograph lines may be terminated at any point to keep events on schedule. Lines form quickly and may be lengthy, so plan ahead for long lines.
8. Some guests may have fees for autographs or pictures, please plan accordingly.
9. Autograph signing hours are at the discretion of the Guest.

These policies are subject to change at any time during the convention, as determined by Autograph Area staff.

Anime Central does not and cannot guarantee that you will receive an autograph from any particular guest.

Masquerade Grand Ballroom; Hyatt Regency O'Hare
Saturday	6:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Masquerade Feedback Session Masquerade Office; Hyatt Regency O'Hare
Sunday	11:00 AM - 12:00 AM

Want to show off your costume on the big stage? Have a performance you're dying to show your fellow con-goers? Interested in having a panel of judges review your costume as part of the masquerade? Join us for the Anime Central Masquerade; the premier cosplay competition in the Midwest!

Want the craftsmanship of your costume judged by a panel of judges, but not able to participate in the Masquerade? Hall Cosplay is another option available at AGen! Hall Cosplay is also a great option for people who have entered something else in the masquerade to have another costume judged.

PACHINKO PARLOR

Panels Main Office; Coat Check Area 1st Floor Convention Center
Friday	8:00 AM - 4:00 AM (or last panel end)
Saturday	8:00 AM - 4:00 AM (or last panel end)
Sunday	8:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Pachinko Fever is a travelling pachinko parlor. Pachinko, the Japanese past time, is a game similar to a cross between a slot machine and a pinball machine. You buy balls, which you run through the pachinko machine, and you can win more balls including brass ones you can redeem for prizes. You can win prizes like buttons and t-shirts, as well as DVDs and other things.

THE ACEN STAFF 2023

We would like to thank each and every volunteer that we have had on the team. The event would not be possible without lots of hard work, smiles and a whole lot of love for the community! -Volunteer Staffing Services

POP UP LOCKERS

Anime Central is partnering with Pop-up Lockers to bring in their rental storage lockers to the convention. These lockers will be setup in the Donald E Stephens convention center where you will be able to access them at any time throughout the convention. We hope that this will be a great option for our attendees who need somewhere at the convention to store their belongs.

Renting a locker will come at an additional fee and space is limited.
